Join In Crusade—Liquor Prices Advance Slightly
As Annual "Dry Edict" Startles DealersEvery road leading into Lima will be closely guarded by both city and county authorities for the next two weeks to halt the importation of liquor for celebration of the holiday season.All suspicious automobiles are to be stopped and searched and their drivers held if contraband beverages are found.Bands of city and county officers will search for stills and secret liquor caches.Christmas is to be made drier than a bone and New Year's eve will be as tame as a bedtime story.So say Sheriff Harvey E.
Crosson and T. A. Lanter, chief of police, in outlining plans for preventing a moist holiday season.From sub-rosa sources it was learned that Lima is to be the destination of numerous liquor laden motor cars and trucks.There will be a wide selection offered, it is whispered, to thirsty residents of the city who know where and how to get it and who have the price of the police and sheriff's office, as well as the usual Christmas demand, according to rumors, may cause the price to soar.The present quotations, subject to change without notice, show an upward trend. Prices are due to go higher, according to information, but if the market is glutted around Christmas time, sharp declines are forecast.The holiday season, from reports, run about as follows: Scotch and Canadian whiskeys, including White Horse, Black & MacDonald, and White Label in five case lots, $65 a case. Single cases range from $75 to $85, and half cases proportionately higher.American bonded whiskey is very scarce, case lots cost $100 and up, and by the quart, $15 to $20.Gin, synthetic, gallon lots $15 to $20. Champagne, almost entirely off the market.Demarara rum, in half barrel lots, $15 a gallon, 15 to 18 gallons to the barrel.Canadian beer or ales, by the carton or case, per case, $12.
Half cases sold at 75 cents a bottle.Grain alcohol sells at $75 for five gallon drum or between $15 and $20 in consignment of a single gallon."Hooch," consisting of home made corn and rye, sells at $4 or $5 a quart, with a $12 price quoted in lots of five gallons.Tightening of the blockade on the Atlantic coast and along the Detroit river has boosted the price of pure Scotch from $62.50, the former wholesale quotation, to $65 to $75 a case with the latter price asked.General distribution of "hip-pocket peddling" in Lima is almost a thing of the past, especially with so-called bonded liquor, as "whisky brokers" take orders and make deliveries to homes of regular customers only.For those whose appetite does not soar, the "bonded" brand, "hooch" is always available despite the activities of the law, while the habitués will have access to Jamaica ginger or other alcoholic drinks.WARDEN THOMAS since she was a child. Then Burt D. Burley took her up for an air-made her speech and hearing completely. The change in atti-

FISHING BOATS HARD HIT

Blizzard Sweeps Copper Coun-sociated Press) — Discovery of quantities of wreckage washed ashore near Eagle Harbor, on the Keweenaw peninsula, is believed by coast guard officers there to show the loss of a lake freighter in Saturday's violent storm. Today the coast guard is maintaining a careful patrol along the lake shore, but aside from the finding of additional wreckage, nothing has developed to throw any light on the mystery.The wreckage was first reported late Saturday. It included part of the pilot house of a vessel, some doors painted white on one side and brown on the other and other bits of floating woodwork that could not be identified. There was no marking on any piece that would serve in any way to identify it as belonging to part of any ship. Soon after the finding of the first pieces, others were found to come ashore.No WRECK REPORTED The fact that there has been no wreck reported on this part of Lake Superior this year leads coast officers to believe that the wreckage found today came from a ship that went down in the storm that began about midnight Friday.The steamer Eugene L. Ford was northeast of Manitowish Island late Saturday, making for Duluth. The captain of the Ford said that he was not in trouble and that his ship was making headway despite the fifty mile night after a fruitless search in Lake Erie storm for the missing fishing tug Helene, manned by Captain W. H. Hornke of Cleveland and five Dunkirk fishermen.The Helene, missing since Thursday morning, when she left Dunkirk harbor to lift nets in the fishing grounds 25 miles off shore was reported Saturday in a message from the master of the lake freighter F. W. Hart at Lorain, to be anchored ten miles out in the lake.The message received by the Alexander Fish Co., for whom Captain Hornke was fishing, said the Helene was still missing.The labor chief died sur-

HINT LACK OF PURPOSE

Men Making Charges Seek to Cause ResignationCLEVELAND—In an announcement made here Saturday night, H. C. Gibson, of Western ville, O., says that because of internal strife in the office of Henry A. Dykeman, division prohibition chief for Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, a number of the men working under him have decided to resign. The men have led in a demand upon Washington officials that he resign.According to Gibson, T. B.
McGowan, O., and Fred
Schilling, Indiana, and himself, went to Washington Friday and laid their complaints before Roy A. Haynes, federal prohibition commissioner.We tender our resignations from the office, to be effective Monday at noon, but our fight for the removal of Dykeman is just beginning," Gibson said. "We feel that as private citizens we still owe to the people of the district to make clear the laxness and bungling in their prohibition enforcement."We are going to try to keep this a clean fight from beginning to end. We believe the evidence we have of lack of purpose and intelligence in the direction of the Cleveland office is sufficient to warrant a change once the facts are presented."The trouble in the Cleveland prohibition office, according to Mr.
Gibson, goes back many months, and has persisted in spite of previous appeals of Commissioner Haynes.Several weeks ago," he declared "about half the staff got together and Senator Frank B. Willis, we demanded that something be done to remedy conditions."Some time later, a special representative of Mr. Haynes was sent to Cleveland, but the man chosen for his duty was an old friend of Mr. Dykeman, so we knew that we would get nowhere."The next move we had was when the three of us who were leading the fight, received sudden telegraphic orders, transferring us to other districts far from our homes."We refused to accept the transfers and thru Senator Willis we demanded a hearing before Commissioner Haynes, but we did not get this until we threatened to make the conditions in the office public."Friday we went over to Washington and we were received by the Commissioner Haynes, three of his assistants, two representatives of the department of justice and a man from the intelligence office."Gibson said that Commissioner Haynes, after having part of the evidence said the rest would have to be heard by his assistants, deeming such arrangements without effect. Gibson said they left and immediately thereafter tendered his resignation.LIMA FIRM GETS

Homes and Bank Struc-

decision to build two church struc-

$135,000 for the two and an additional to the present plant of the Artcraft Sign Co. to cost between $30,000 and $50,000, gives promise of a busy construction year for Lima in 1925.These projects combined with the new Lima Trust Co. home to cost $1,000,000 or more and the new home of the Old National Bank to cost $500,000 or more and the many new homes to be built in the spring indicate a total construction of about $2,000,000 to start off the new year.Ground will be broken Monday for the second unit of the Artcraft Sign Co. plant at Shawnee-st and D. T. & I. R. R.The building will be a one story brick structure 60x150 feet, and will house an enameling plant.
The structure will cost not less than $30,000 without equipment, according to R. R. Trubey, secretary of the concern. The new building will stand south of the present electric sign factory.Oil burning furnaces and machinery and storage tanks holding five hundred gallons of oil will be added to the new plant.
The cost of the new plant, including equipment, is expected to be $50,000 to $60,000. The new plant, capital stock has been increased by the board of directors from $75,000 to $125,000.MORE CAPITAL The increase in capital will probably be subscribed from within the company, Trubey declared, and no stock disposed of on the outside.Construction of the new factory will open a field to the Artcraft, which, he asserts, the firm has been unable to enter, for lack of proper equipment, according to J. M.
Schilling, sales manager. Hitherto the concern has devoted its attention to electric signs exclusively.A H. Embler, formerly of So-bring, will be manager of the enameling plant and is to be financially interested in the concern.He is former superintendent of the Strong Manufacturing Co., makers of enamel reflectors for the Westinghouse and General Electric Co. He will also bring to Artcraft five years experience as superintendent of the enameling plant of the A. B. Stove works in Battle Creek. He has moved to Lima and is residing in 934 W.
Elm-st.Opening of the enamel plant not later than April 1, Charles G.
Meyer, president, declared, will result in practically doubling the payroll of the sign company with-

POSTAL ADVANCE PROPOSED

Measure Designed to Care for Employees' Raise

INCREASE PROHIBITIVE

Periodicals Point Out Disaster Befalling Them

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—Advances in postal rates, designed to yield very close to the proposed $65,000,000 a year increase in the pay of postal employees, were suggested to congress today by Postmaster General New.

They will affect virtually all classes of mail except letter mail. Simultaneous with the transmission of the postmaster general's recommendations to congress, the postal committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association attacked the department measure, declaring that the suggested increase of $10,576,000 annually on second class mail, consisting entirely of newspapers and periodicals, would have the effect of doubling the rates on newspaper circulation going through the mails.

BLOW AT NEWSPAPERS

"This action by congress," said a statement from the association, "will have the double result of reducing the revenues accruing to the department and absolutely forbidding the circulation of daily newspapers in the mails."

Announcing that his suggestions for advances were based upon the conclusions arrived at by the cost ascertainment recently submitted to congress, Mr. New in his letter transmitting the rate proposal to chairman Sterling of the senate postoffice committee, gave notice that the department was prepared "to explain and defend" this cost ascertainment if attacked.

Specifically, the rate advances recommended would yield $66,750,000 divided as follows: Second class mail—$10,576,000; Post office expenses—$10,576,000; Fourth class mail—$12,000,000; Third class—$12,500,000; and direct mail advertising—$18,000,000.

Post cards—$12,500,000, thus increasing the rate from one cent to one and one-half cent.

Registered letters $1,000,000; Postal insurance $2,075,000; Collect on delivery, $1,103,000. Before the postmaster general's recommendations were transmitted to Sen. Sterling a third effort to fix a date for a senate vote on the employees' pay bill, vetoed at the last session by Pres. Coolidge, had failed.

DETERMINED TO MAKE SWIM

Girl Will Again Endeavor To Perform Feat

PARIS—(By Associated Press)—The "Villa of Cross Channel Swimmers" is the sign that has been hung out above the door of a ten-room wooden building on the extreme point of Cape Gris-Nez, France's most advanced point of land into the English Channel.

So numerous have been the attempts at cross-channel swimming in recent years, and so limited are the accommodations of the two small huts overlooking the straits at Gris-Nez where most of the swimmers take the water, that William T. Burgess, who swam the channel in 1911, has purchased a villa at the Cape with the intention of placing it at the disposal of future candidates for channel honors.

Mrs. Harrison, of Buenos Ayres, has rented four rooms in the villa. She and her daughter Lilian, who made an unsuccessful attempt to swim the Channel last summer, will take up their residence next July and await a favorable opportunity to try it again.

Miss Harrison is at present in London, attending a physical culture school and training in view of her 1925 campaign.

Burgess, who has accompanied most of the successful and unsuccessful channel swimmers of late years, is of the opinion that Miss Harrison can do it, in view of her long standing this year when she met with an unfortunate accident and, with one more year's training, he is confident that the Anglo-Argentine girl will be the first woman to negotiate the treacherous straits.

REGAINS SIGHT LOSES TALENT

ROLIVAR, Mo. — (By Associated Press)—A talented player of six musical instruments while blind, Amos Cady has lost his musical ability since his sight was restored by an operation, according to physicians.

Cady, blind from childhood, became popular as a traveling music man. He was "one man orchestra" playing a harmonica, a harp, beating a bass drum, with his elbow, canals with his knees and a triangle and set of Swiss bells with his feet.

He played by ear, having never studied music.

Since the operation on his eyes, his talent has vanished and he is attempting to regain his ability on one instrument at a time physicians said.

If you are going to entertain, isn't it gratifying to serve your guests the cream of the season's choicest food? A. J. Graham's, especially if it is Graham's. Main 1937.

The forecasting of many projects for the early spring and the announcement of others, on which work is ready to begin, is expected to greatly relieve the surplus labor situation.

A general influx of labor from surrounding towns has been noted during the past few months. A great percentage will be ready for spring work. At the same time, all plants here have been running with a few somewhat below normal.

Prisoners deported. Five foreign-born prisoners of the Ohio penitentiary were Saturday delivered to federal authorities for deportation to their native land. They were Dominick Giarra, a Sicilian, to Italy; William R. Leah, a Frenchman, to England; and John Gordon, a Scot, to Scotland. Jerome Hickey, a Canadian, to Canada.

2 CHURCHES ARE PLANNED

Richie-av. between Charles-st. and Jamestown-av.

A conservative estimate of $60,000 to finance the erection of the building as well as the installation of pews and other furnishings, has been prepared by the committee.

Services are at present being held in a portable frame building, erected several months ago by the Home Mission Board on the present building site. When building operations begin this will be removed.

Members of the building committee are Rev. Jacob, chairman; D. G. Gentry, F. H. Roth, F. G. Hackman, Theodore Edstrand, P. C. Sackney, L. W. Colburn, E. W. Colburn, E. W. Armstrong, Carl Buegel, Mrs. E. M. Iske and Miss Marie Sommer.

Tentative plans for the Grand-av. M. E. church, which call for an expenditure of $75,000 for the building and furnishings combined, were announced by J. I. Motter, of the Motter and Green Realty Co.

The building will occupy the center of a plot of ground having a frontage of approximately 140 feet and a depth of nearly 200 feet. The site faces on Murphy-st. and is located on Motter-st.

A frame building in which services are being held, which will be removed only in the spring and other quarters where services can be held will be provided.

Rev. R. W. Turner, pastor, with the aid of a building committee which is still in the process of organization, is busy with the plan.

HOUSES PLANNED. Property for the construction at varied prices of a number of houses, the estimated total cost of which is $10,700, have been announced by building. Most of the houses will be built in Westwood, but several will be put up in other parts of the city.

During the past week 15 lots have been sold in Westwood, some with purchasers planning the erection of houses with the advent of favorable weather. The 15 houses will cost approximately $30,000.

H. J. Strachan is planning the erection of six frame houses on an expense of $20,000. Two will be built on N. Union-st., two on Woodlawn-av., one on Wendell-av. and one on Wayne-st.

Ed A. Cady will start Monday on the erection of a $20,000 brick home at the corner of Glenwood-av. and Market-st. It was made known late Saturday.

Several beautiful homes are at present under construction in Westwood, and are being built at an average outlay of $25,000. It was announced Saturday by L. C. Townsend, real estate broker.

Ben F. Welly, former congressman and president of the Radiant Oil Co., has started a beautiful brick home on the north side of Market-st. west of Woodlawn. Henry Lewis of the Haworth Motor Sales Co. is building a similar home on an adjoining lot. Dr. T. H. Horvath has begun the construction of an $18,000 brick residence in the same general location.

Harry Zuremehly is building two homes in S. H. One, on the northeast corner of Market-st. and Glenwood-av. is to cost $15,000 and the other on Woodlawn-av. near Market-st. will involve an expenditure of $10,000.

Work on the $10,000 frame home of Ray Campbell on Woodlawn-av. near Market-st. has progressed beyond the middle stage, and will be completed in a few weeks.

STORMS SWEEP OVER LAKES

The Helene's fuel tanks were empty.

Tugs of the fishing fleet, which set out for the open lake immediately on receipt of the message were driven back to the harbor by a rising gale. Four steel tugs with reserve supplies of fuel beat their way out into the lake from Dunkirk breakwater Saturday afternoon. Upon their return last night, they reported that snow and sleet, with resultant low visibility, had hampered their search. It was possible, they said, that they had passed within a short distance of the Helene without sighting her.

C. J. Alexander, of the Alexander Fish Co., said the Helene was last off shore as reported, she would be able to ride out the storm.

MILWAUKEE. — (By Associated Press). — A blizzard accompanied by a 45-mile gale is sweeping over the Michigan coast district today and parts of a pilot house window casings and a cabin door washed ashore at Colchester, Mich. late Saturday afternoon, caused apprehension for the craft, according to word from Colchester.

No indication of the identity of the ship was found in the wreckage and the Eagle Harbor coast guard was preparing to maintain an all-night patrol of the shore.

Snow plows were keeping railroad traffic open in the city, the report said, but other traffic is practically at a standstill. The temperature is at zero.

It is feared the ill-fated ship is in the Camden or an unidentified foreign ship, sighted earlier in the day.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich. — The Captain John J. Boland, one of 20 steamers known to have left Port Arthur and Port William last night with cargoes of grain, reached here late today after coming thru the worst storm of the season. According to the captain of the Boland, the wind in the vicinity of Whitefish Point is blowing 64 miles an hour, which statement was corroborated by a late bulletin from that point.

The wind velocity is 46 miles an hour here, accompanied by a heavy rain.

Makes Autos Go 49 Miles On One Gallon of Gas

Stout Falls, S. Dak. — James A. Day of 2488 Locust Bldg., has invented an amazing new device which is enabling auto owners all over the country to more than double their mileage from each gallon used and remove every particle of carbon from their motors.

With this device attached, many autos have made over 49 miles on a gallon of gasoline, increased their power and pep, and banished spark plug difficulties.

Anyone can attach it to his car in five minutes without tapping or drilling. It is automatic and fool-proof. Its action being governed by the speed of the motor. If you want to double your mileage from each gallon of gasoline, thereby cutting gasoline cost in half, eliminate carbon, and get more power, the manufacturer wants you to try a Wesco device at his risk. So confident is he of what it will do, that he offers to send a sample Wesco to anyone who will write for it, test it on his own car, and, if delighted, show to neighbors and take their orders. Simply send your name and address, without money, giving name of car and yearly model and he will send you the sample immediately. When the regular $17.50 Wesco arrives, deposit only $1.75 plus a few cents postage, with the right man. This will be returned in full and a special introductory offer good only for a few days. Use it thirty days — if not satisfied that it is the most remarkable money-saver you ever saw, return it, and your money will be refunded. Write Mr. May today, care of above address and get more mileage at less cost from each gallon of gasoline you use.

and four members of reserves. From the 32 that originally tried out 18 will be selected, and from them 12 the 12 members of the team will be chosen at a more detailed trial.

Bad Cross Christmas seals are being sold in all the home rooms of Central High school. The quota is 25 seals to the student and Central earnestly hopes to go over the top.

An all-athletic mass meeting was held last Tuesday. Ralph McKinstry, president of the Lima Michigan University alumni, presented Captain William Stanger with the large cup awarded each year to the winner of the Thanksgiving day clash by the Lima-Michigan Alumni club. This is the second year that Central has earned it and, if Central's team conquers South next year it will remain the possession of Central forever. E. A. Havensola read a letter of presentation from Stanger's jewelry store for a silver trophy awarded by them. This is the first year for the Hastings jewelry store trophy and it will become the permanent possession of the winner of it two out of three times. Coach Ward E.

Young then presented letters to 22 members of the 1924 football squad and numerous to 12 second team players.

Another mass meeting was held Friday in honor of Health week. Motion pictures depicting the right way of living were shown then.

The Art club, under the supervision of Miss Ethel Simpson, and presided over by Herbert Wise, held a very interesting meeting Wednesday. Conrad Garter and Margery Hersh gave well prepared articles on current events in the art circles. Thomas Evans, Conrad Garter and Barbara Dewey were appointed to a committee to decide on a pin for the club. Miss Simpson requested the club, in behalf of the Junior class, to design a standard class ring for Central High.
The members also are doing work for the Annual Mirror.

William Stanger presided at the regular meeting of the Senate. The child labor amendment was discussed by all the members. The question for debate next week has not yet been decided, but the committee in charge will make its report soon.

The Troubadour Dramatic society meeting was placed in charge of Marion Cost by Frank Cory, president. Wednesday.
Recitations were given by Jeanette Benjamin and Leroy Jones.
They were very interesting and well prepared. Gray Knisely was elected sergeant-at-arms to keep better order at the meetings.

The Astronomy club is well organized now, according to A.
Schultz, faculty advisor. Robert Ashton is president and under his supervision the club discussed the coming solar eclipse.
The eclipse will take place Jan.
24, about 8:20 and every member of the club intends to take note of it.

The Jesters, a dramatic club, supervised by Miss Dorothy Faris, presented humorous sketches at its usual meeting Wednesday.
Miss Gale Howey was a guest of the club.

FIRE CONSUMES
GALLIPOLIS, O.—A fourteen-year-old daughter of Robert Hanson residing at Adison was burned to death and Mrs. Hanson was probably fatally burned when fire destroyed the Hanson home Saturday. The girl's body was completely consumed by the flames.

Mrs. Hanson and her daughter were rendering lard in a kettle on the kitchen stove. The lard boiled over and caught fire.

MONDAY GREAT CHRISTMAS

THE BIGGEST VALUES OF THE ENTIRE YEAR—NOW

DOLLAR DAY

HERE IT IS

BOSTON STORE'S GREAT CHRISTMAS DOLLAR DAY!

Because $1 is a popular price, especially where one's Christmas list is long, we've undertaken to establish a large number of unusual values in this Christmas Dollar Sale, this year. Some of them are listed here, and there are many more throughout the store.

Because some of these are unusually special values, you must shop early Monday, as where quantities are limited—they sell out quickly.

We try to keep dealers from buying up these extraordinary values, but many of them send their clerks in the guise of customers.

HEALTH CLINIC
CONDUCTEDBluffton School Children
Given Examinations

Fifty-seven children were examined at the Children's Health Clinic Friday at Bluffton under the auspices of the district Red Cross Society.

Of these 25 were boys and 32 girls. Thirty were found in perfect health and normalcy. Outstanding defects were abnormal tonsils, glands and adenoids. One child was afflicted with a tumor and three with minor lung diseases. Dr. Sutter, Allen-go health commissioner, presided.

On the examining committee were: Drs. R. E. Hughson, J. S. Steiner, Eben Basinger, all of Bluffton; J. H. Hill of Columbus Grove; J. Light of Ottawa. Dr. J. J. Sutter, Allen-go health commissioner, and the three public nurses, Miss Charlotte Bassett, Miss Iva Baxter and Mrs. Bessie Augerberger, were also present. Mrs. Zoe McCaib of the state department of health gave some health hints and Mrs. Dr. R. E. Hughson took charge.

If you are going to entertain, don't it gratifying to serve your guests ice cream? A dessert everyone likes, especially if it is Graham's. The R. L. Graham Company, Main 4937.

Dr. H. R. Myers, Dentist, 208 Masonic Bldg., has gone to the hospital for an operation—his office will be closed until further notice.

THE LIMA SUNDAY NEWS

Published every Sunday morning in The Lima News Building, 121 E. High-st., Lima, O. Entered as second class matter June 8, 1924, at the postoffice, Lima, Ohio, under Act of March 3, 1879. EARL R. LEACH, Managing Editor.

Samuel Gompers

Samuel Gompers is dead. In his passing the country loses a valuable citizen and labor a great leader.

The doughty little commander of organized labor in this country went down in the line of duty. He had gone to Mexico City to attend the Pan-American labor conference when he became ill. The altitude was blamed for his sickness, his heart having been affected.

Despite his condition, Gompers fought bravely against the end, as he had fought the battles of labor for nearly half a century. He had been active until the last and one of the most active men in the country in spite of his advanced years.

Gompers came to this country from England when 15 years old, being the son of a cigar maker in that country. In 1881 he founded the American Federation of Labor, having become identified with labor organizations when, after his arrival in the United States, he took up the trade of his father and organized the Cigar Makers' International union.

Except for one year he was president of the federation of labor which he formed. He gave his time to this organization and has been a power in the labor world.

As all men who do things have their enemies, Gompers had his. He had foes within the ranks of labor and some without, but on the whole he had been a balance wheel against radicalism that had made for him millions of friends among the conservative, constructive labor element and among those on the outside as well.

Gompers' shoes will not be easily filled. Already there is a cry from certain elements to "kill Gompersism." The radicals will attempt to gain a firmer footing now that the chief who has done much to hold them in check is dead. It is not probable that his great following will permit a tearing down of the valuable institutions and good will he has helped set up. They should not.

Losing Our Goat

Did you ever fly into a rage while trying to open a window in a Pullman car? Most people do. These windows usually stick as if nailed shut or imbedded in glue.

They're intended to stick. Otherwise they would keep the traveler awake by rattling or permitting drafts of air to enter around loose edges and cracks.

Posted in the corridor of a Pullman car, we find a notice instructing us to summon the porter if we want the window opened. "It's his job, anyway," says placard.

The porter, it develops, carries a special apparatus, a lever that pries the window open easily.

So a lot of us have been annoyed, exasperated, enraged without cause.

Think it over. Isn't that the way with most of the things that "get our goat"? Nine times out of ten the trouble is in our own nerves and attitude rather than in the situations and obstacles that rile our emotions.

For instance, when a man is in a hurry, the sidewalk crowd seems in secret alliance to get in his way as much as possible. It never occurs to him that he is in other people's road quite as much as they are in his.

We blame the porter rather than the obstinate window. That is not fair. We blame the salesgirl who waits on us, if our change is slow in coming—the clerk cannot help it.

We neglect to vote, and then make the air blue if we are not satisfied with politicians who get into office by reason of vote slackers' negligence.

We return a cross word double-measure, and are firmly convinced that the other party is entirely to blame if a quarrel results.

It's a fine alibi, the claim that something gets our goat. As a matter of fact, we usually get our own goat.

Generally, at the root of it all is nervous impatience—high blood pressure of a frantic haste without reason for it. A contented, easy-going life is the formula. "A hundred years from now it won't make any difference."

War Results

More than 10,000,000 cripples emerged from the World war, according to French government report. Germany had 1,537,000, France 1,500,000, Great Britain 1,170,000. The rest were among other countries that participated in the conflict.

Each of these 10,000,000 cripples is or was a living monument advertising the horrors and futility of warfare.

A few years, and they will all be gone. Humanity forgets quickly. Another generation or two, and the death lists and cripples of the World war will have faded to the background.

Historians and politicians cover up the terrible side of war as fast as they can. Time slips by. The war becomes glorified, thrilling, a romantic adventure as taught to children in schools.

This is the system by which later generations are prepared for another war. History is largely a record of battles, with horrors suppressed.

With millions of dead in the World war, and 10,000,000 and more of cripples emerging to keep us reminded of the conflict, one would think that the world would be so sickened that it would disarm—at least for a generation.

Yet, to the contrary, thousands of millions of dollars pour steadily into the war chests.

Every community in every country should erect a monument giving a record of the millions killed or crippled in the World war. Such monuments would be permanent warnings to future generations. Instead, the monuments will depict heroes and, in general, surround war with false romance.

The militarists are getting bold again, even in our own country—beginning to talk about the "next war," branding workers for peace as contemptible traitors.

The best way to build a backfire against them is to impress indelibly into the minds of the rising generation, the horrors of wholesale murder. Don't let them be lulled into a false belief that war is glorious, romantic, admirable.

Christmas Seals

Twenty years ago Elmar Holbrook, a postoffice clerk in Denmark, originated Christmas seals. The money derived from the sale of these seals goes to fight tuberculosis.

In 20 years the sale of Christmas seals in America has multiplied into the millions. And in 20 years the yearly deaths from tuberculosis have dropped from 200,000 to 100,000. Christmas seals are not altogether responsible. But they help mightily. Buy them this year. Help the good work.

Winter Weather

Winter started mildly, more warm days than cold. You recall the old saying, "A green Christmas makes a full graveyard." The persistence of this adage suggests that it embodies the learning of long experience. It also proves that mild winters are not peculiar to our times.

Climate is not changing as much as people believe, if at all. They had "green Christmases" long ago—mild winters.

HOW COME THE ATTACK OF HEMORRHOIDS

Remembered the first word I saw formation where the pile was in the beginning.

About varicose hemorrhoidal veins (piles) was cancer. I said: An individual may therefore have just one attack of piles—which means acute inflammation of the varicose hemorrhoidal vein or veins—and never a second attack, because either nature or the surgeon has destroyed the affected portion of vein. Or even after nature or the surgeon has destroyed the pile, the individual may have subsequent attacks of piles if cancer loops or tufts of hemorrhoidal veins become varicose and inflamed, and as is likely if the individual breaks the rules of hygiene we have already indicated as factors of piles.

Varicose veins in the leg cause no great suffering or disability unless they become inflamed—phlebitis. The same circumstances apply to varicose veins about the outlet of the alimentary tract—and incidentally this "attack of piles" is phlebitis, too. Discomfort and annoyance, and sometimes bleeding, are practically all the trouble one subject to hemorrhoids experiences until he has an "attack." One attack, especially of the thrombotic type (clotting in the affected vein) is painful enough to suffice for a lifetime, however. Yet some people insist on having attacks of piles every little while, and next time we'll try to tell them how foolish that is.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Eat 'Em Up!

Is it better to eat an apple or a roasted potato peeled or unpeeled? One you suggested that people should take a little time with their food, and you mentioned mixing powdered eggshells with the table salt. Will you please tell how much to use? (T. G. D.)

Answer—Better to eat apples with their skins on, and baked or roasted potatoes in the same unpeeled state. Potatoes are better boiled with their jackets on, if you eat them boiled—but the potato skins are not appetizing when eaten. The skin of baked potato is more palatable than the inside, and you've cultivated an unimpaired taste for it. Eggshells are practically pure lime (calcium) phosphate. It may be mixed with the table salt, and put a pinch of each in the salt cellars, to provide an adequate calcium or lime ration for the body. This may be advisable in households where the dietary is ultra-refined. But if you use sufficient fresh milk, various kinds of cheese, fish and the green leafy vegetables and fresh vegetables, you'll get all the lime your system needs.

Salt With Iodine

Kindly tell me where I can get salt with iodine for use on the table and in cooking as a preventive against goitre and premature old age and the various ailments of the thyroid gland. I am sure for victims of the iodine shortage. (MRS. H. J. C.)

Answer—At least three large salt manufacturers are now marketing the grocery trade iodized salt. I should be glad to name them for you, but I cannot tell you which groceries supply that salt. (Copyright, 1924)

A THOUGHT

In the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion; in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me upon a rock.—Ps. 27:3.

It is not designed that the road shall be made too smooth for us here upon earth.—Jane Porter.

JUST FOLKS

By EUGAN A. GURST

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
This day is mine to mar or make,
God keep me strong and true,
Let me no erring by-path take,
No doubtful action do.

Grant me, when with the setting sun
This fleeting day shall end,
I may rejoice o'er something done,
Be richer by a friend.

Let all I meet along the way
Speak well of me tonight,
I would not have the humblest say
I'd hurt him by a slight.

Let me be patient and serene,
Gentle and kind and fair,
Help me to keep my record clean Thru all that I must bear.

Grant that because I live today,
And to my thoughts give voice,
O'er something he shall hear me say Another shall rejoice.

Let there be something true and fine
When night slips down to tell
That I have lived this day of mine
Not selfishly, but well.

After this date I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by any person other than myself.
MR. BERNARD C. MICHAEL.

'ROUND LIMA HOUR BY HOUR

BY OH, OH, JACKENRIM.

A Page from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter: Lay over late, and belowstairs to prunes and bacon. To the post, but found only sad tidings from my old friend, George Bentz, the one-time stock broker. Long resident of Los Angeles, and president of the Ascot racing plant. Along the paves, to meet Officer Galt, and later, R. T. Gregg, the big merchandiser.

There are three or four more corner lots that should be improved with filling stations. Some people are always worrying about what is to become of the new houses; albeit, met Frank Bentz and Roy Fletcher, not two blocks apart, and both were wearing smiles like a small boy on Christmas morn.

What with the brave sunshine, and noble installments, this Saturday pleases me much.

Around the public square, bowing to Bert Corwin and picking one of the bargains at Eckhard's drugery. This done, home, to lunch on cold ham, betimes.

After lunch, being Friday, and saints be praised having choked on no bones, took the family for a drive. Using an old horseblanket, a genuine antique, for a winter front. Driving thru the town, spoke to Paul Harris, the land-scape gardener, knocking off rather early. Albeit, he really has labors to perform, while what with an oil burner and no lawn to sprinkle. Billie Shockcraft has a soft time, methinks.

On the new Rue de la Paix, saw foine lady, wearing three face coats, done in original colors, with an after varnish of sheer poudre. Which gives the very title have been seeking (The Painted Lady) for my new book, fashioned for the Garden City press.

Comes word that Wallace D. Moore, an old newsboy and one-time Buckeye messenger, is circulation manager of the Digest in California. Another evidence that being a newsboy is the first step towards manhood's success. Can it be possible that three months have flown since I signed that note, albeit Brie Applas is always right.

In the evening came a poor widow, selling embroidery. The best I could dig up was fifteen cents. In these days, I never care more money than enough for layres, what with the safe-cracking and building of new homes everywhere so apparent. Tho it made me sad the evening thru.

Later out, to stroll about, and step off the footage of the shack, to get the street cleaning and lighting totals. It will set us back more than the price of the new tooth was expecting to buy. So, altogether rather Bolshevistic in mind, and billious in disposition, to bed, without refreshments.

AUTO FINANCE FIRMS TO FORM ASSOCIATION

COLUMBUS—Managers of the Ohio automobile finance companies will gather here Wednesday to discuss plans for organizing a permanent association, it was announced here today.

The association would be planned along the lines of the national organization which held its convention last week in Chicago.

The principal object of the association, local finance men said, would be to reach an agreement on finance methods and terms.

The national association's convention adopted resolutions providing that all new automobiles be sold on terms of one-third down and the balance in twelve equal installments. Used cars would be sold under a 40 per cent down payment and the remainder within a year.

Long time terms are unsafe, the finance men say, and the shorter terms with higher down payment would more firmly stabilize the industry, they said.

STRUCK BY AUTO

REALISTS JOIN CONFERENCE

Party Names Representatives to Progressive Confab

WASHINGTON.—The national committee of the Socialist party voted here Saturday to send delegates to the convention and delegates to the conference for progressive political action in Chicago, Feb. 21, for the purpose of deciding whether the political action which supported the presidential campaign of Senator La Follette last fall shall be maintained into a permanent national political party. Morris Hillquit, James Debs and Bertha Hall were named as the Socialist delegates. At the same time, the Socialist committee decided to sponsor a national convention of its own party, to be held on the same date and in the same city as a progressive gathering. Mr. Hillquit, who presided at the gathering, said that the Socialist delegates assembled could vote in support or rejection of any political proposal that might be made.

The action can be considered "show" he said, "that the Socialist party is maintaining its steady attitude toward the attempt to organize a labor party in the United States, and is facilitating such a design in every possible way."

The Socialist party endorsed Senator La Follette's candidacy for the last election, and made no official nominations. The executive committee of the conference for political action after a meeting in Washington Friday, announced the calling of the February Chicago convention. While one of the railroad labor union representatives in the progressive conference voted to discontinue further proceedings, the Socialist delegates and others present constituted a large majority assembling the national conference and submitting the issue. Debs, who has several times been a candidate for president, arrived in Washington late Saturday, and participated in the national committee session.

The Socialist national convention, in addition to the three national delegates, will consist of two delegates from each state or organization.

SECRET PATROL INEFFECTIVE

Highway Police Should Wear Full Uniform

WASHINGTON—(Special)—Secret highway police are not as effective as uniformed officers in deterring traffic violations.

This conclusion is made by Thomas P. Henry, president of the American Automobile association, after consulting 61 police chiefs of the country.

Of the 61 cities Henry reports only three still use plainclothesmen to catch speeders, five others use both uniformed and uniformed men, and the rest confine their policing to uniformed officers.

Of the last class, 23 cities had tried plainclothes officers and abandoned this system.

Reasons received by Henry from various police chiefs for abandoning the secret patrol system were:

Uniforms protect the motorists as well as the police.

The uniformed officers would be more conspicuous.

It is more important to discourage violation than to make an arrest after something has happened.

The secret system presupposes the motorist is a criminal.

It also encourages fatalities by mistaking police for highwaymen and creating constables.

Studebaker In Mountain Trip Hits Blizzard

A letter was received last week by Ed Hawisher, manager of the local agency for Studebaker motor cars from J. W. Halfhill, Jr., 127 N. Collier, who recently left Lima on a trip thru the east.

Halfhill and his mother are making the trip in a Studebaker motor car, which was purchased new in Lima. Naturally Halfhill had the car at only 20 miles per hour for the first 500 miles and never exceeded that speed until the car had been driven the 500 miles.

The trip over the Alleghenies was made in a blizzard, with snow sometimes as deep as 10 and 12 inches, but the Studebaker had no difficulty whatever in making the hills, although the wheels were covered with snow.

By the time Halfhill reached Philadelphia he had driven 25 miles per hour and then 30. Old w

Motor Coach Popular In Auto Realm

Coach prices are definitely fixed at less than those of open cars in the reduction on all enclosed cars announced by the Hudson Motor Car Co., D. M. Clevenger, of the Clevenger Auto Sales, local Hudson-Essex dealers, said Saturday.

The stage for this move was set some months ago when the Hudson coach was offered at exactly the same cost as that of open cars, Clevenger said. This move was considered a sensation in the industry. The proportion of enclosed cars in the Hudson business, already high, reached new marks, according to Clevenger.

As the volume of coach business increased further, a reduction was possible which brought the Hudson coach actually below the open cars in cost. Now has come the move which brings the price of both Hudson and Essex cars below any previous standard of enclosed car prices in the automobile industry.

"This surprising and even astounding price move," said

Clevenger, "bears out the prediction that enclosed cars are the standard style, and the touring cars are luxuries."

Maxwell Motor Claims Record Sale Of Autos

The usually successful record given the new Maxwell cars the country over has resulted in hundreds of applications for dealerships being filed with the Maxwell Motor Sales Corp. in the last few weeks, according to J. H. Fields, vice president of the company.

The company's records show that never before in the history of the organization has the sell of its franchise been so largely sought after, not only in this country but in Europe and Australia, Fields says.

This recent swing to Maxwell, he says, is one of the most prominent dealers in the country, is undoubtedly the outcome of the high performance capabilities of the new Maxwell. Fields points out.

LOBBYIST BODY BACK ON JOB

Women Interested In Bills Before Congress

KEEP CHECK ON SOLONS

Child Labor On List Of Things Desired

WASHINGTON — (Special)—The 68th Congress has again convened—another way of saying that the women's joint congressional committee is back on the job.

Its smooth-running lobbying system is hitting on all six.

Its influence is being directed to accomplish the following objectives:

Ratification of the child labor amendment;

America's entrance into the world court;

Reclassification of federal employees;

Establishment of a department of education;

Establishment of a federal prison for women;

Passage of the home economics bill;

Defeat of the equal rights constitutional amendment.

The committee has power and influence for the simple reason that it controls millions of votes throughout the country, representing as it does 22 national women's organizations.

MANY ORGANIZATIONS

Some of these are the League of Women Voters, Federation of Women's Clubs, Parents-Teachers Congress, National Educational Association, Teachers' Federation, Consumers' League and Y. W. C. A.

For these organizations it acts as a clearing house for concerted political action.

When five or more of the organizations endorse a measure, a subcommittee is immediately formed and the wheels of the joint committee's lobby system start turning.

Influence is brought to have committee hearings on the measure advanced to an early date. Then experts are engaged to appear and speak before the committee.

When this measure is to be voted on by Congress, special workers are assigned to ask each member of the House and Senate how he will vote.

KEEP VOTE RECORDS

If a congressman indicates that his vote will be unfavorable, wires are sent to the state chairman of the organizations represented by the committee, which have endorsed the measure. The congressman then straightway receives telegrams from all these organizations' local chairman, saying: "The women of your state are back of this measure; they want you to vote in its favor."

A careful record is kept of how each congressman votes on every measure in which the committee is interested, and he may feel certain that this record will be given wide publicity at his next election.

The committee does not knock off work after successful passage of its measures. It has a standing "follow-up committee" which makes it a business to see that the measures, once passed, are properly carried out.

Its "look out committee" keeps an eye peeled for new measures about to be introduced.

Its two other standing committees are on publicity and admissions.

Prevalent in the minds of young and old alike is the

of Christmas and the desire to give are synonymous. There is a thought in mind, to have sufficient funds to give clothing and toys to the poor and unfortunate of the city that their Christmas may be gay and cheerful. That it is a joy for people to give to the needy is shown by the abundant amount of good that is being done each year tion of the shepherds. It was

CLOTHES FIT MOOD OF TIMES DESIGNS SHOULD SHOW TREND OF TIMES IN LINES—TEXTILES

The modern woman's clothes must express more than beauty and imagination and what is called style. They must fit into the mood of the hour. They must express 1924 no matter if the inspiration was 16th century.

Clothes must fit into the pattern of the day and become a part of the general panorama of loveliness.
If a woman is to enjoy them and be distinctive. The designer to be successful must feel the trend of the times and know how it may be best be expressed in lines and textures.

The straight chemise frock which has become almost uniform is not a favorite with designers or creators of costumes. It is easily copied, adapts itself to all figures and tends to make women look alike instead of individual.

But the straight, rather unadorned frock suits a strenuous age that moves speedily and people who think quickly, speak rapidly and have no time for the gracious courtesies and formalities of a less commercial age.

But in the simplicity of today line and cut must be perfect as well as workmanship and material.
Accessories must not conflict with the costume. A woman, most of all, must have instinct for lines.
She must know how to make her lines seem long and flowing if she is short, and to camouflage a bad neck and shoulders or other defects without seeming to do so, as there can be no beauty without balance or proportion.

At the left above is seen an importation of black velvet featuring embroidery of gold and crystal beads form a double cape of whatever length desired.

Your Gas Plant

LAST winter when the coldest weather in recent years gripped this city and housewives were able to cook their meals with gas as usual and could heat water in tanks and could enjoy small heaters, they could scarcely believe they were in Lima, since the exasperating experiences they had had the winter before.

It was not until some time later that they learned that a great sum of money had been spent at the Lima gas manufacturing plant to put it in condition to augment the ever diminishing supply of natural gas with a manufactured product. That was the answer to questions concerning the plentiful supply here when the official thermometer was registering 10 and 12 degrees below zero.

To date, the company has spent approximately a quarter of a million dollars to build up the plant that formerly was the property of the Lima Gas Light Co., the artificial gas company of this city. Today it is one of the finest gas manufacturing plants in the state of Ohio and is adequate to produce a manufactured gas in quantities that will meet every demand of Lima consumers.

Lima housewives will receive all the gas they need this winter just as they did last, and the expansion that has been made in the meantime makes possible an abundant supply for industrial purposes as well.

The plant of the West Ohio Gas Co. is a modern carbureted water gas plant capable of manufacturing 3,500,000 cubic feet of gas daily. It is located on land owned by the company at Elm and Jackson Streets and is ideally situated for any expansion that may be required in the future.

The most modern equipment has been placed there, consisting of two 8 foot 6 inch and one 9 foot U. G. I. water gas sets. It is these machines that turn out the manufactured product, using what natural gas is obtainable as an enriching agent.

In connection with the equipment, much of which is too technical to be readily explained, is an electrically operated Thomas Recording Calorimeter, an instrument that records the B. T. U. or heating value of gas flowing into the mains every minute of the day. This device keeps the manufactured product at an even heating value day and night and other instruments keep the pressure at the same stage constantly, assuring better results than should the pressure fluctuate.

Tomorrow we shall tell you more about your gas manufacturing plant that makes certain all the gas you will need for all time.

MODERN SHIPS AIR PROOF

Probers Told War Craft Can Resist Bombs

U. S. PLANES OLD TYPE

Bidding Has Tended to Encourage Industry

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press)—Modern battleships have the power of resisting bombs carried by the type of airplanes possessed by the United States army, Maj. Gen. Patrick, chief of the army air service, said today in testifying before the house committee investigating aircraft problems.

Tests on the hull of the uncompleted battleship Washington off the Virginia capes recently, he said, provided that the army bombing craft were obsolescent and should be replaced with bigger and more powerful ships capable of carrying bombs which would be effective against modern navy capital ships.

The United States, he said, had developed types of bombing planes high quality in the world, at the majority of the bombers now in service were of an older type.

Gen. Patrick pointed out that a race between battleship design and making of aircraft and aircraft bombs was in progress, similar to that which has gone on for years between armor of battleships and armor piercing projectiles for great naval rifles. Bombs of a size that could be carried by the present-day army bombers were of sufficient power to sink or cripple a type, he said, but the experiments against the hull of the Washington had made it obvious that more powerful and heavier bombs would be required.

The statement to the committee was in line with that by Sec. Wilbur in his recent appearance before the house naval appropriations sub-committee in urging that funds be made available to strengthen the decks and install blister protection on pre-Jutland battleships of the American fleet.

Gen. Patrick also discussed before the committee the decline of the aircraft building industry in the United States. While the army service had attempted to standardize present types of planes it required so far as was possible in the present state of aircraft development, he said, it had been necessary to place orders for army aircraft thru negotiated contracts rather than by competitive bidding in order that as many aircraft factories as possible might be kept alive.

In the Interest of Music by The Fisk-Pursell Piano Co.

What Is All This Talk About "Reproducing Pianos"?

There are so many kinds of player pianos, so-called "reproducing pianos," etc., and all claiming about the same thing—that no one knows exactly what is what. Some think this—some think that—but very few really know. And the confusion continues unnecessarily—for the facts are clear and simple.

What Is a Player Piano?

Let us answer this first, merely to clear up the situation. A player piano is an instrument that plays automatically from a music roll directed by an operator, mostly by footpower. Some grind out flat-expressionless "canned music"—while with some the operator gives expression to the music by following directions printed on the music roll for his guidance. It is sometimes among the tonal effects a trained operator can secure with player piano—there is a distinct technique at which some people become quite adept.

What Is a Reproducing Piano?

It is a step beyond the player piano. It requires no operator, and reproduces to a limited degree and in part only, the original playing of the great pianists. There are several kinds of reproducing pianos, under several different names. Unfortunately their respective claims of

What Is a Re-Enaction Piano?

This is to be very frank. The re-enacting piano is in reality a reproducing piano raised to the final state of perfection—the AMPICO. The difference between the AMPICO and all others is clearly evident by actual comparison, but unfortunately not all people hear the comparison. The AMPICO alone re-enacts in the minutest detail all of the finer gradations of tone—all of the characteristic tone coloring, and phrasing of

GOOD HUMOR PARAMOUNT ON WEEK'S THEATRE PROGRAM

PRE-HOLIDAY PRODUCTIONS MERITORIOUS

"The Bird of Paradise" To Be Excellent Offering at the Faurot

"Tinkletown" Featured by Facts and Figures Company at The Orpheum

Very interesting pre-holiday theatre bills will serve to keep everyone in good humor. Local theatres are bending every effort to present offerings that will be above the average in quality.

Drama will vie with comedy and music will play a prominent part in every offering of consequence. There has been no let down in the quality of production.

At the Faurot the Players' Guild stock company will present "The Bird of Paradise" with a full company and the scenic investment as was in the original presentation.

Myrtle Ross and Walter Dunn will be in the leading parts. This is expected to be an offering.

"Tinkletown" is the light comedy offering at the New window theatre for the week. A map presented by the Facts and Figures company with a in the six well known players were me Kenneth Christie.

OPIC PLAY

His "The Bird of Paradise" at the Faurot

All the lure of the tropics has been condensed into the romance of "The Bird of Paradise," that beautiful story of Hawaiian love to be produced by the Players' Guild stock company at the Faurot Opera house for one week beginning today.

When Richard Walton fully wrote the dramatic offering he put into it the very life of that part of the world that has been very little known up to that time. The weird and sensuous spirit of the strange people, the romance, the freedom and the alluring charm of the south seas are all present in this wonderful drama.

Thru the action is carried the story of Luana, a character that truly reflects a woman's soul. All persons will be touched by this pagan girl, a flower of happiness representing the care free, happy spirit of Hawaii. Into her life comes an American and their love story is one that will thrill even the most hardened theatre goer.

"The Bird of Paradise" deals with a woman's love, all sacrificing and consuming. It is an episode from the life of every woman that will live forever in memories. Miss Myrtle Ross will have the part of Luana. This is a role that demands the very best in the way of acting and character appreciation and Miss Ross will give a really remarkable characterization. It is promised, "This pleasing artist made hundreds of friends last week and it is assured she will win hundreds more this week. She will be ably supported by Walter Dunn, one of the most pleasing male leads seen here in several years. Other members of the company will be well cast.

Special scenic effects will be used in the presentation of "The Bird of Paradise" and music will be provided just as in the original production. The orchestra is proving a pleasing feature at every performance.

There will be performances every evening and at the Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday with a special bargain show Monday

"TINKLETOWN"
Village Life Depicted in Orpheum Play

"Tinkletown" is the offering of the Facts and Figures company at the New Orpheum theatre for the first half of the week.

This musical comedy production was written by Fred J. Berman, postmaster at Jackson, Mich., and given its first showing at the National theatre in Detroit where it was produced under the direction of Vic Travers, well known producer of that city.

The play made such a hit that it was decided to send it on the road and Facts and Figures company was organized by Travers to give it a proper presentation. It has made a hit wherever shown and it is believed will duplicate past history here.

Settling for the play are all rural and some clever effects have been evolved by the designers. These take the audience to the village of Tinkletown in Muskogee, Okla. All the village characters will be there. The Constable, the Town Post, the Town Gossiper, the Country Doctor, the City Villain and all the other characters so well known to the followers of "Way Down East" and similar plays.

Members of the company include Yvonne Marchand, Gene Post, Kenneth Christie, Dorothy Hall, Gates Austin, William Nelson, Jeanne Norwood, Bud Hawkins and ten Tinkletown Village Beauties.

For the latter half of the week, beginning Thursday matinee, an entirely new show will be presented. This is "The Servant Problem" with Kenneth Christie, late of the "Wine, Women and Song" company in a blackface role. Christie has made a name for himself in his negro characterizations in musical comedy.

The regular added attractions, foremost among these being "Painted People" on Wednesday, will be seen during the coming week.

COLLEEN MOORE
"Painted People" to Be at Majestic

Colleen Moore became famous for her "tomboy" roles before the present day flapper stepped into the limelight. Following the film fashions, she essayed a flapper role in "Flaming Youth" and became the sensation of the year.

She can again be seen as a tomboy in "Painted People," the first National picture which comes to the Majestic today for a three day stay. The film was adapted from Richard Connell's famous magazine story, "The Swamp Angel."

Cast as Ellie Byrne, a hoydenish girl of the poorer section of a typical American town, the ring leader of all the devilry of the neighborhood, and the best ball player in the district, Miss Moore has a part peculiarly fitting to her talents. Playing opposite her is Ben Lyon, who is rapidly forcing his way to the front line of film stars, and other popular names to be found in the list are Anna Q. Nilsson, Charlotte Merriman, Bill O'Malley, June Elver, Mary Carr and Russell Simpson.

Starting Wednesday The Majestic will have John Gilbert in "Romance Ranch" for two days. "Mighty Lak a Rose" with an all star cast, finishes the week.

Mary Pickford is going to forget the costume production and return to the type of picture in which she attained her fame. Reports from Hollywood are to the effect that she will be seen as a poor girl of the people in her next production.

Richard Dix's next Paramount picture "The Mink of Gestures" is being adapted to the screen by Gerald C. Duffy from the story by John Monk Saunders which appeared recently in the Cosmo.

Walter Dunn, leading man with the Players' Guild stock company, who will be seen in "The Bird of Paradise," supporting Miss Myrtle Ross at the Faurot today and all week.

One of the parade numbers in "Facts and Figures" at the New Orpheum theatre today and all week.

THOMAS MEIGHAN

"Tongues of Flame" Opens Sunday at Quilna

Thomas Meighan, most popular of all screen stars, will be seen at the Quilna for the first days of the week in his latest starring offering, "Tongues of Flame." Another well known production will be seen the last half when "Worldly Goods," starring Agnes Ayres, moves in on Thursday.

Cook roles and real "he-man" stories are Tom Meighan's specialties. And "Tongues of Flame" is said to be one of the finest examples of the latter. It was adapted from Peter Clark MacFarlane's last novel and deals with a conspiracy on the part of a grasping capitalist to swindle a tribe of Indians out of their valuable reservation. Meighan has the role of "Hell Fire" Harrington, an easy-going young lawyer, recently returned from the World War, who at first as the tool of the capitalist, persuades the Indians to turn over their valuable land, and later, discovering the swindle, fights on the other side.

The scene of the picture is laid in the country around Puget Sound. Indian reservation scenes, mob episodes and a great fire sequence are said to inject real thrills into the story.

Bessie Love and Eileen Percy share feminine honors opposite the star and in the supporting cast are Burton Churchill, John Milburn, Leslie Stowe, Cyril Cusack and 75 full blood Indians of the Onondaga and Cattaraugus tribes.

"Worldly Goods" is described as a unique domestic drama with real, human people—unusually interesting and filled with rich humor. It was written by Sophie Kerr and first appeared as a featured serial in the Ladies Home Journal, later being published in novel form.

good a chance as a foreign play. is in evidence at the Garrick.

The Guild had laid a corner stone in the building of American drama as epoch-making as the corner stone of their new theatre.

While the experience would be measurable, it should be compulsory for every one who presumes to even peep critically about the American drama to see this production. No more will we have to take the Moscow Art and other foreign units as a standard of perfect ensemble work.

Personally I have never seen a more perfect blend of play, production and interpretation. No play has been years in America has been cast with such real inspiration and discrimination.

Pauline Lord's portrayal of Amy, the San Francisco waitress, who comes to the Napa Valley farmhouse to marry Toney, whom she has never seen, is one of the finest portraits on the American stage. The comedy and pathos with which Miss Lord imbues this girl, longing for a home, who has dreamed her romance about the photograph of Joe, the young assistant, which the elderly Tony has sent her instead of his own, establishes the highest mark of fine acting.

The tragic longing beneath the words when she discovers the trick and finally decides to stay. "Well, I know what I'm about. I guess I didn't come here for love, but a home and I got it!"

But Amy's momentary madness that first night of revelry at the truth and her fleeting hour with Joe has its consequences. The elderly Tony, whose great dream is having children, however, refuses to let Amy go with Joe, the father of her coming child. And the play ends with a novel turn which will grip all adherents of melodrama, but will delight the hearts of all others. Comedy insistently supplants tragedy in this story of the Italian grape-growers of California.

While Pauline Lord may be said to run away with the play, she does dominate it. In that very point lies her great artistic achievement. Glenn Anders as Joe is a close second to Miss Lord in his splendid acting as the migratory worker-philosopher, Richard Bennett, at Tony, the "wop" bootlegger, master of the vine yards, longing for a wife and bambino, who loves the pretty waitress he had seen but once, gives a beautiful understanding to this Italian character. The atmosphere of the Italian-American locale, the festa, the fireworks the throbbing off-stage Neapolitan music, the violent excitement—all add to this human drama.

Another old favorite—with some—comes to town next week when Raymond Hitchcock opens in "The Sap." Hitchcock presented his show by sending dramatic critics tickets with a note advising them to send them to their worst enemies.

Ruth Chatterton said it wasn't so, she didn't marry her leading man, Ralph Forbes, of "The Magnolia Lady."

Andre Chartot has gone back to London to get some more English stars for his revue, many of those he brought over having made such hits as to attract the attention and loosen the purse strings of other producers.

NEW COMEDY IS PLEASING

Review of Theatrical Week Shows Little of Real Worth

NEW YORK — (By United Press)—A warm spot in an otherwise lukewarm theatrical week was the big scene in "Artistic Temperament," a new and much commended comedy at the Wallack theatre, in which a young lady drifted into the hero's work room—he's an author—in one of the most diaphanous nighties that has adorned the New York stage since Earl Carroll's hunger strike.

Outside of this, little of interest was revealed in the line of newcomers during the present week.

"Artistic Temperament" is by no means a bedroom farce, but it has all the kick of one, in between two-stage—kisses. Elizabeth Bladen is exposed as the heroine.

Departure from the stage for ever—or thereabouts—of Lee Dietrichstein may prove eventually the high spot of the week for the theatrical world. The hero of "The Great Lover" announced his health will not permit him to act any longer and he is going back to "Sunny Italy."

A forthcoming production which is awaited with genuine interest by New Yorkers and those who go to the theatre here is "Old English," a Galsworthy play with George Arliss in the leading role, which will be tried on the dog up in New Haven next Monday for a week.

AMERICANS HAVE DRAMA

No Longer Necessary To Depend Upon the Foreign Stage

NEW YORK — (By United Press). Here is a chance for every believer in the American drama to stand up and give three rousing cheers.

"They Knew What They Wanted" means something more than the title of Sidney Howard's successful comedy. Somehow or other it typifies the reason for the whole, answering progress of the Theatre Guild to produce only the finest and best, even beneath the criticism of their seeming penchant for foreign plays. Now then "re-tort courteous," that an American play up to their standards has as

in "THE ENCHANTRESS"

Starting an engagement Thursday at the Sigma.

DOUG M'LEAN
"Never Say Die" Is Sigma Feature

Comedy fans who have been disappointed at least a half dozen times by the postponement of Douglas MacLean's new feature, "Never Say Die" will welcome the announcement that it opens a four day engagement this afternoon at the Sigma.

The picture is a screen version of Willie Collier's great Broadway success which kept New York laughing for a year and then played on the road for four seasons.

The story is a delicious tale all about a young man of vast wealth with an erroneous idea he has not long to live. To prevent his fortune going to charity, he is induced by a young artist friend to marry a beautiful girl, so that she may inherit his wealth.

The girl has already engaged herself to the artist, who is counting on sharing his friend's wealth when the proper time comes. As was to be expected, the bride never becomes a widow and the romance develops into an exciting conflict between love and duty.

A laughable satire on the divorce business figures in the plot with more hilarious situations when the unhappy married hero and his pretty victim try to conceal the fact that they are crazy about each other.

In his endeavor to join the girl on a steamer about to sail the hero has the wildest and most exciting chase thru Central Park ever recorded on the screen. The finish is said to provide the largest and unusual number of laughs.

"Circe the Enchantress," written especially for Mae Murray by Vincente Blasco Ibanez, comes to the Sigma Thursday for the remainder of the week. The story hitches up a long modern episode

Colleen Moore

"Tongues of Flame" at the Quilna.

to the English colony of Barbados. There he suffers the horrors of penal barbarism, and eventually escapes with his fellow slaves on a raiding Spanish man-o-war. He now becomes Captain Blood, feared freebooter, who by his spectacular exploits clears a path to freedom for his crew and a way to the heart of the English governor's niece, with whom he has fallen in love.

The producers have given the picture a wonderful setting, replete with beautiful shots of the open sea, of many masted ships and of thrilling sea battles.
"Captain Blood" will be succeeded on Thursday by "Dynamite Smith," the production that returns Charles Ray to his beloved role of the bashful and timid youth. It is said to be a film that thunders with the clash of emotions—a story of the gold rush days.

Jacqueline Logan heads the supporting cast which includes such favorites as Bessie Love, Wallace Beery and Lydia Knott.

DOG GIVEN
POOR PART

Modern Canine Pictures Found Untrue to Real Life

Some day a wise producer will break away from the stereotyped and merely entertaining dog story now periodically assigned to the screen's half dozen remarkably trained canine performers.

He will produce a great brute drama; one which will reveal the soul of a dog as it is disclosed to millions of humans every day in commonplace or crisis. He will have many imitators.

It will be more powerful if perhaps a quieter tale than has thus far been attempted. And the four-footed hero is as like to be a plain mutt as the prevalent police dog.
That dog would stand out; be remembered; turn a handsome penny for his master. And he will not necessarily be a trick dog, capable of extravagant stunts.

"The Silent Accuser," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture featuring "Peter the Great," a magnificent police dog, which prompts these reflections, is not such a trailblazing product. This new screen arrival is given a story which repeats, with slight variation, the common merits and faults of current dog melodrama. It runs to the exaggerated thrills. It endows "Peter the Great" with incredible reasoning faculty, and credits this brute hero with no other desire than to get his master out of trouble after the dog has witnessed a murder.

"Peter" is a splendid creature who responds with fine shadings of instinct and intelligent action.
He does his best to bolster up a crudely shaped story in which he performs with Eleanor Boardman, Raymond McKee and Earl Metcalfe. No dog on the screen works more sensitively.

It is a basic fault in the screen treatment of dogs that they are assumed to have been created for no other purpose than to get humans out of a mess. A dog's own life, where it does not impinge tragically on human fate, has been almost wholly neglected in films. The chase, the battle, the barking accusation and the slashing fang, in offense and defense of virtuous humans—these are about all that has yet been attempted in revealing the dog dramatically.

Yet how many dog owners have seen their own or some other animal in such an exaggerated role of virtue's defender? True, folks are shown in the movies with equal exaggeration, but we know dogs better than we know our human neighbors, because the former dissemble less. Hence something nearer the truth about dogs should prove more agreeable to screen patrons.

NEW PLAYS
SCORE HITS

Broadway Revels in Latest Theatrical Offerings

NEW YORK — (Special) — American playwrights are not without honor, it seems, save at the hands of America's premier producer.

Of the ten best plays visible on Broadway, as nominated by a group of viewers, only one is of foreign parentage. That is Mol-nar's "Guardians." Of the others, at least some are good enough to evoke abundant flag-waving pride from their native land.

The outstanding Belasco success of recent years was "Kiki" of European importation. He opened the present season with "The Cats" which closed after six weeks, and now he follows with Vajda's "The Harem." The Theatre Guild formerly shared the suspicion of being partial to overseas authorship. But it's highly successful. They knew what they wanted, now current is strictly home-grown.

When is David Belasco going to encourage home industries?

"The Harem" featuring Lenora Ulric, came to town with a certain dark notoriety gained on preliminary road appearances.
Carnal it is, after its, farcical fashion. Here we have a wife conducting an affair with her husband.

Miss Ulric's disguise of veil and Turkish trousers fools no one but her husband. But it fools him as the lady next door.

Comedies and caustic questioning of formal types is in "Close Harmony" at the Gaiety. It is a more gesture of smartness. But it happens that the objectionable character is a thoroughly good woman who cannot resist parading her qualities. Her husband is led by truly fish and worthy instincts to plan an escape from her with the wife of his next door neighbor.
The emancipation is not carried out except in mind and spirit towering above the others in the company at James Spottswode as the husband and Wanda Lyon as the lady next door.

STREET WORK DELAYED

Advertising Dispute Arises in Bridge Project

County Commissioners may seek an opinion of Attorney General C.
C. Crabbe on the legality of advertisements inserted by the board for sale of a contract to pave Bellefontaine-av bridge between the car tracks.

Commissioners insisted Saturday that the project was legally advised, being so advised by Eugene T. Lippincott, prosecuting attorney.

C. R. Phillips, county auditor, has refused to allow a bill for the advertising, asserting that the state law has not been complied with.

He asserts that he is upheld in his contention by J. M. Main, inspector for the state bureau of accounts and by state officials in Columbus.

PUBLIC NOTICES
The law provides that public work shall be advertised in two papers in a county and that they shall be of opposing political complexion.

Commissioners claim that state officials do not understand the situation. Whether or not they will proceed to readvertise as before was not determined Saturday.

The letting of the contract was scheduled at noon Saturday, but the one bid was withdrawn by George Walthers for fear of legal complications.

Commissioners ordered the project readvertised, but failed to specify the mediums. John W.
Thompson advised seeking advice from Crabbe. His counsel may be followed.

Lippincott's contention, he said Saturday, is that the advertisement was legal, and he has so advised the commissioners. He added however that if the two newspapers suggested by Phillips were employed, the publication would also be legal, in his opinion.

AUTO COLLISION SUIT DISMISSED BY COURT

COLDWATER.—(Special).—F.
B. Wimmers lost the suit brought in the court of common pleas of Mercer-co, against E. T. Smith of Lima, when Wimmers asked damages sustained in an auto collision on the St. Marys-Celina road on September 20.

Wimmers' son, Sylvester, driving an Oakland touring car, was going eastward and met Smith who drove a Dodge car, the latter failing to give the proper amount of road according to Wimmers.
In attempting to avoid a smash, one machine swerved to the left and a collision followed.

Smith in a turn brought suit against Wimmers for $500, charging careless driving and an excess rate of speed. The jury sitting in the case two days brought in the decision that there was no cause for action.

CHEVON NEW MEAT

Just as you call cattle meat "beef," calf meat

"veal" and sheep meat
"mutton," you should hereafter refer to goat meat as "chevon."

"Chevon" is the official name for this meat approved by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, by request of goat producers. The word comes from the French

"chevre" meaning goat,
and "mouton," meaning

mutton.

In other words, "chevon" is goat mutton.

CONSERVE FERTILITY

Conserve fertility thru the different demands of root systems of different crops is one of the advantages of crop rotation. This intermittent use of fertility permits recuperation of the soil after the crops that make heavy demands.

Radio Teacher Gets Big Mail

Letters from all over the world come to Miss Lillian Eichler, who has been taking on classes from Station WEA, New York.

"I receive letters from people in every class or caste of society," says Miss Eichler. "I have on my desk this minute a letter that has traveled all the way from a student in India, another from a school teacher in Texas, another from the wife of a prominent senator, another from a washerwoman's son who wants to come to New York and make a career for himself."

Most of the letters are concerned with love, courtship, proposals, marriage, weddings. The majority come from brides and bridegrooms.

MECHANIC ACCUSED OF ATTEMPTED BLACKMAIL

DAYTON—Arrest of Fred L. Grice, 28, auto mechanic of Lima, O., near here, today disclosed an alleged attempt to blackmail three prominent Dayton citizens out of $75,000 each.

Valentine Winters, banker; Frederick Patterson, head of the National Cash Register Co., and Charles Ketterling of General Motors Corporation all received letters demanding the huge sum, under threat of torture and death, according to police.

While the writer of the notes uses "we" in the demands, police are of the opinion that Grice had no accomplices.

On and After This Date 5 Passengers Can Ride in a Yellow for the Price of One. This Announcement Comes at the Time of Year When Taxicab Service Is Most Urgent.

We cannot foresee how much this action will increase the volume of patronage. Volume is the life and soul of the Taxicab business. With volume almost anything can be accomplished. If the increase in volume is large enough this extremely low rate can be maintained.

Our Drivers Are Vitally Concerned in This Move as They Share in the Receipts, and They Agree with Us That It Should Be Thoroughly Tried in Appreciation of Public Good Will.

This is the first time in Cab history that a high class, responsible Taxicab company has ever dared to make a rate as low as this.

The Announcement Should Be Good News to You. You Want Our Service; You Want Our System; You Want Our Safety and Our Type of Drivers, and When We Make a Street Car Fare Rate for This Kind of Taxicab Service, We Feel There Is Little Left to Be Desired.

We believe that this action will make hundreds of new Taxicab riders—that it will induce mass riding—encourage people to club together and go to theatres, parties, and to and from work and so divide the cost that it will be insignificant to the individual.

This Interesting Fact Must Appeal to You That the Finest Taxicab Service Lima Has Ever Known Is Now at Your Command for Street Car Fare When There Are Three or More People in Your Party.
